BODIES IN MOTION
A look at the unique collaborations of choreographers and filmmakers
By Angela Ashman

Now in its 37th year, the Dance on Camera Festival, presented by the Film Society of Lincoln Center and Dance Films Association, zooms in on the cinematic contributions of choreographers and dancers and their unique collaborations with filmmakers, ranging from silent classics to cutting-edge indies for a total of 40 works. The January 11 lineup includes "On the Short Side," a program of 11 bold new works by indie filmmakers (a highlight being Manuelle Labor, French experimental filmmaker Marie Losier's collaboration with Guy Maddin, introduced by Losier); the silent 1918 film The Blue Bird, with live piano accompaniment by Ben Model; and VSPRS Show and Tell, directed by iconoclastic filmmaker Sophie Fiennes (The Pervert's Guide to Cinema), with moves by pioneering Belgian choreographer Alain Plate!
